

Information Technology Department

Vision

To produce young, globally competent candidates with an aptitude for leadership and research to face the challenges of modernization and globalization courageously who will be instrumental for overall growth of society.

Mission

To provide a state of art, academically enriched environment, to prepare students to be socially and ethically conscious engineers equipped with necessary analytical, mathematical, decision making, information-centric, communicative, leadership and teamwork skills having knowledge about latest advances in the field of Information Technology.